

Class-7

UNIT-7

SECTION –B

SUBJECT- ENGLISH

CHAPTER NAME- A GIRL CALLED GOLDEN

B. 1. Do you think Betty enjoyed her training and hard work? Support your answer with evidence from the poem.

Yes, Betty actually enjoyed her training and hard work. The line that suggest that she actually enjoyed her training and hard work is, 'Why did you train, while others were playing.'

2. What were the special qualities that her coach saw in Betty Cuthbert?

The special qualities that her coach saw in Betty Cuthbert was that she is special in running than the others and the courage and dedication in her.

3. Which lines in the poem suggest that it is not easy to become a winner?

'Long spells of effort; and much to be learned' suggests that it is not easy to be a winner.

4. Betty was very young when she won gold medals at the Olympics Pick out the word that suggests this.

The word which suggests that Betty was very young when she won gold medals at the Olympics is 'teens'.

5. Do you think the title."A Girl called Golden" is suitable for the poem? Give reasons.

Yes, the title 'A Girl Called Golden' is suitable and appropriate because the entire poem talks about the golden qualities of Betty Cuthbert. The poem describes her qualities which were very different from the rest of the children around, which made Betty different and special in her own way. She had set a goal in her mind. She worked hard with patience and dedication. She was a good listener and paid attention to the words of her coach. So she was successful.