Chapter - COLONEL FAZACKERLEY

B. 1. What happened on the first evening? How did the ghost try to scare Colonel Fazackerley?

On the very first evening, while the Colonel was waiting for his dinner, the ghost shot out of the chimney and shouted a warning to the Colonel to be cautious and alert towards the dangers awaiting him.

2. How did the Colonel show that he was not scared of the ghost?

The Colonel did not show any sign of discomfort. On the contrary, he appreciated the ghost's effort to put up a spectacular show for his amusement.

3. How did the ghost initially react to the Colonel's indifference?

The ghost gave a withering cry.

4. What did the Colonel say that left the ghost speechless?

The ghost initially felt quite silly and irritated by the reaction of Colonel and he began to roam all over the house aimlessly making roaring sounds in frustration.

5. What did the Colonel regret?

The Colonel regretted not asking the ghost's name because he would not be able to call him back to the house.

C. What impression do you form of the Colonel?

Bold — When he meets the ghost he is amused rather than afraid. Friendly — When the ghost leaves, he is sad at losing him.
